WHO ARE THE TRUE ISRAELITES?

"Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

JEREMIAH 30: 10

OUR IDENTITY

WRITTEN BY: EVELYN C. POINTER, ELDER

We are the true Israelite, the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. God promised Abraham that he would leave a remnant, or portion of his children. The children of Israel suffered under many captivities. Ten tribes were taken away during the Assyrian Empire, never to be seen again. These are the so called lost tribes of Israel. The ones that remained, of the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Levi were occupied by foreign nations and by many captivities. They were finally taken away under the Roman Empire after Jerusalem was destroyed in AD 70. What happened to the children of the promise? They were taken captive by their enemies and sold into Egypt for the prosperous slave trade. Later they were sold as slaves into Africa, beyond the rivers of Ethiopia as the bible tells us. Eventually they reached Africa's western coast having mingled through the centuries with these nations. They forgot their name, their nation, their language, and their history. They forgot the holy oracles and served the gods of their captivity. They were finally brought as slaves to the new world. The so called black or African American suffered under the worse slavery in history. Why would something so terrible happen to the children of God? God punished his people because they would not obey him. Deuteronomy chapter 28 delineates line by line the curse that God put upon the children of Israel because of disobedience. There are no other people on the face of the earth that this applies to. Consider that the black man is a proverb and a byword.

Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

ISAIAH 43:5-7

Consider that the iron yoke of slavery was put on them. Consider that they were scattered among the nations. Even today, after the Civil Rights movement they still remain far behind the white man and other minorities no matter how hard some may work. Racism is alive and well in this country. It is only because of the mercy of God that slavery ended and the black man was allowed to become educated, allowing us a chance to survive and grow and return to God. The people who occupy the land of Israel now, and the so called Jews around the world do not fit the description of the children of the promise. Some of the richest people in the world are the so called Jews, and they have great influence and powerful lobbies in the United States. It was Great Britain and the United Nations that helped to establish a "Jewish" homeland in Palestine. In 1949 they declared the state of Israel. The United States sent millions and millions of dollars to help make them into a nation. The Jewish leaders had a simple way of determining who was a Jew and could live in Israel. You just had to say you were, there was no real way of knowing. The United States sends millions to Israel every year and is the true military power who protects them. God did not return these people to Israel. Righteousness and truth have not filled the land. The bible says that when God returns his people the land will be like the Garden of Eden, not an arid desert as we see today. God is calling his children to return to him. Though we went away in sorrow, we will return again with singing. In the last days the Lord will reveal to the entire world who his chosen people are. He will get them fame in all nations. Israel will be a center of truth and peace and the glorious kingdom of God, not a hot battle ground. At this time will be fulfilled the promise to Abraham, "In thee shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."
